PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the credit union movement is now in its second century of service: and

WHEREAS, the credit union members throughout the world will celebrate International Credit Union Week during October 12-18, 1969; and

WHEREAS, credit unions are part of a truly international movement, and members of credit unions will be observing the entire month of October as International Credit Union Month, and

WHEREAS, credit unions provide an invaluable means whereby consumers may pool their savings, and assist themselves to fill their needs for credit at a low cost, and

WHEREAS, credit unions have proved an effective and versatile tool for combating usury, unfair credit practices, educating consumers and encouraging thrift; and

WHEREAS, these credit unions not only promote the economic security of their members, but also strengthen democracy, promote consumer education, encourage individual responsibility and the practice of true brotherhood and thus benefit our entire community; and

WHEREAS the State of South Dakota now has 117 credit unions whose combined membership total 50,000, representing a significant proportion of the citizens of South Dakota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 12-18, 1969 as to be observed in South Dakota and urge our people to give fitting recognition at this time to the many benefits brought to them through credit unions:

AND I FURTHER PROCLAIM October as

INTERNATIONAL CREDIT UNION MONTH

in South Dakota and urge our people to give fitting recognition at this time to the many benefits brought to men of all nations through credit unions. I extend to the leaders and members of the credit unions of South Dakota my greetings, congratulations and sincere wishes for continued success in serving their fellowmen.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 30th day of September in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine.

Frank L Farrar
